

Ensuring the full human rights of all women and girls are respected: UK Statement at the UN General Assembly

Statement by Chris Carter, Head of Human Development, at the 55th session of the Commission on Population and Development