

Ensuring the protection of children in migration

FRA took part in an expert meeting on children in migration. Member States' authorities and EU agencies attended the 28 January event. The purpose of the meeting was to discuss the state of play in the implementation of the 2017 European Commission's Communication on protecting migrant children.