

Environment Agency and partners warn Berkshire river users to stay safe in heatwave

People warned that hazards around bridges and locks, dangerous flows and unexpectedly cold water can catch bathers off guard.