

Environment Agency consults on updating charges for international waste shipments

Environment Agency launches consultation on updating charges for regulating notified international waste shipments