

Environment Agency delivers major fisheries improvements funded by rod licence income

The Environment Agency has published its Annual Fisheries Report revealing that over 1 million licence sales in 2020/21 funded improvements to the environment.