

Environment Agency invests over £950k into local angling projects

By reinvesting rod licence income, the Fisheries Improvement Programme enhances habitats, improves angling facilities, and mitigates the impact of our changing climate.