

Environment Agency navigation charges consultation outcomes

The Environment Agency has published the outcome of its consultation on boat registration charges to provide a more consistent and transparent charging scheme