

Environment Agency to invest an additional £230k into fisheries through rod licence card change

Environment Agency takes further steps to modernise rod licencing to increase fishing benefits for anglers