

Environment Agency urges caution as Storm Ciara rolls in

People should be vigilant and stay safe along the coast this weekend as strong winds are expected to cause large waves and spray.