North East man sentenced for waste offences

Stephen Fenwick has been handed a suspended prison sentence following an Environment Agency investigation.

Stowey Quarry saga ends with final convictions

A scrap metal exporter and a middle-man broker have been told to pay over £800,000 for taking advantage of a quarry that became an illegal tipping site.

Clampdown on illegal fishing in Derbyshire

166 spot checks were carried out while, in addition, five people were also reported for lighting a large barbecue.

Vehicles seized in multi-agency operation to curtail waste crime

Multi-agency operation to curtail the activities of a convicted criminal in Worcestershire.

£1,000 fine for dumping waste in southwest London

Man fined for illegal dumping of waste in Raynes Park following tip-off from local resident.