

Mevagissey to receive new flood warning service

The Environment Agency has announced it will be offering a new flood warning service in Mevagissey from 19 May 2021.

Low-carbon concrete flood defences to help Environment Agency hit net zero by 2030

New roadmap sets out how EA will reduce emissions by 45% to hit 2030 net zero target

Two men fined for poaching in Northumberland

Two men have been fined hundreds of pounds for poaching with an illegal fishing net in a Northumberland river.

The Great Outdoor Escape: popularity for fishing here to stay as public desire long-term connection with nature

The Environment Agency has launched a campaign calling on all potential and seasoned anglers to see their licences as more than just a legal entitlement to fish.

Man fined for obstructing Environment Agency officers

A North East man has been fined for obstructing Environment Agency officers during an investigation into the illegal dumping of waste.