

Environment Agency crushes 8 wheel truck linked to Kent waste crime

Tough action is example of Environment Agency's new powers to combat illegal waste activity.

Bathing water season begins

The Environment Agency is monitoring 419 bathing water sites across England until 30 September

The crucial role of nature-based solutions in addressing the climate crisis

Speech by Emma Howard Boyd at the ClimateExpo, 18 May 2021

Norfolk man guilty of illegal waste operation

A Dereham garage proprietor admits to storing waste illegally, despite repeated warnings from the Environment Agency.

Environment Agency launches new Anglian Pass for boaters

Boaters now have the option to purchase an 'Anglian Pass' which allows them to navigate unrestricted across neighbouring navigations.