

More than 250 trees planted as part of North East flood scheme

More than 250 trees are being planted in a Northumberland town to replace those lost during construction of a vital flood alleviation scheme.

Environment Agency calls on builders to follow duty of care

Construction firms urged to take responsibility for their waste to limit disruption to the environment.

Permit variation application for waste water reinjection at Brockham oilfield, Surrey

Public Consultation is now open

Environment Agency extends partnership with Angling Trust

The Environment Agency's contract with the Angling Trust has been extended until March 2023.

Houghton Brook Flood Storage Area in Luton now completed

600 homes and businesses protected from flooding.