

Call for volunteers to play vital role during flooding

The Environment Agency is calling on residents in a Northumberland village to register as Flood Wardens.

Southampton communities work together to tackle plastic pollution

Ambitions to reduce avoidable plastic waste in the Southampton area have taken a step forward at a virtual workshop run by the Environment Agency.

More than Zero: why Net Zero alone won't save the planet – and what will

Speech by Sir James Bevan, Chief Executive of the Environment Agency, to the Whitehall and Industry Group on 16 March 2021

Close season for coarse fishing gets underway for 2021

The Environment Agency is reminding anglers the 'close season' for coarse fish in rivers comes into effect from Monday 15 March and runs until 15 June.

New arrangements at visitor moorings on the non-tidal River Thames

The Environment Agency is to test new arrangements for managing its short-stay visitor moorings along the non-tidal River Thames.