

Lincolnshire dirt bike track black-flagged over waste rules

Companies to pay more than £15,000 for breaching environment permits.

Proposed new byelaws to protect salmon stocks on the Severn

A consultation which seeks views on the Environment Agency's proposed new byelaws is open from 5 March 2021 for 4 weeks.

Plan to improve flood and drought resilience in Severn Valley

Investigations have started into how to better protect up to 3,000 homes and 1,000 businesses from flooding.

'A reel good design' – new fishing rod licence images released

Brand new licence images have been designed and created by artist David Miller.

Top high street chain pays for its recycling error

Zara Home agrees civil sanctions with the Environment Agency.