

Wildlife set to flourish after project completion on River Stour

A partnership project benefiting a range of wildlife has been completed on the River Stour, near Bures.

One year on from Storm Ciara: Progress to flood embankment repairs on the Lower River Aire

One year on from Storm Ciara, a £10 million package of work to repair flood embankments on the lower River Aire is making good progress. A total of 18 defences have so far been repaired to protect local communities from the ...

Watching the wolf: Why the climate emergency threatens us all

Opening remarks by Sir James Bevan, Chief Executive of the Environment Agency at the Association of British Insurers' Annual Conference, 23 February 2021

Major habitat creation project on the Humber to start this spring

The Environment Agency and Associated British Ports to start work to create 175 hectares of new habitat.

Climate Chaos: “it’s not part of the project brief”

Emma Howard Boyd, Chair of the Environment Agency, addresses the CBI construction roundtable