

Environment Agency invests £48 million in projects to benefit fishing

The EA has published its Annual Fisheries Report

The future for environmental regulation: Green growth not red tape

Sir James Bevan, Chief Executive of the Environment Agency, delivered a speech this morning at the Westminster Energy and Environment Forum.

Improving fish populations in the East Midlands

3,000 fish reared at the Environment Agency's National Coarse Fish Farm have been stocked into rivers in the East Midlands.

Consultation launched on new nuclear power station design proposed for UK

The Environment Agency is consulting on its assessment of the UK Hualong Pressurised water reactor design.

Community engagement on Tenbury Wells flood risk management scheme

People in Tenbury Wells have until 31 January 2021 to visit a virtual engagement room to find out about a proposed flood risk management scheme.