

Environment Agency allays dead fish fears in River Coquet

In the early winter months between November and January people are likely to see a large number of dead and dying salmon and sea trout in our region's rivers.

£3.9 million to drive innovative tree planting

In celebration of National Tree Week, government commits new funding to help reach its tree planting commitment

Grimsby and Cleethorpes flood sirens to be decommissioned

The Environment Agency's modern and free Flood Warning Service has proved so effective that sirens in Grimsby and Cleethorpes are to be decommissioned.

£100k Get Fishing Fund to benefit new anglers

The Environment Agency and Angling Trust have today announced a new £100k 'Get Fishing Fund' to encourage more people to give fishing a go.

Health and the environment

Speech by Emma Howard Boyd, Chair of the Environment Agency, to the Chartered Institute of Ecology and Environmental Management.