

New flood warnings for Etwall help communities be better prepared

The Environment Agency has improved the free flood warning system and is able to offer the communities of Etwall in Derbyshire better information about flooding.

Climate change and water: Are we doing enough, fast enough?

Emma Howard Boyd, Chair of the Environment Agency to the Institute of Water

Farmers and waste companies urged to check waste management processes or face enforcement action

The Environment Agency has intercepted increasing amounts of contaminated plastic waste which were bound for illegal export.

Basildon man guilty of waste crime

Chance police check in Chiswick.

Luton flood storage area to reduce risk to 600 properties

Works will see creation of 'green corridor' benefiting people and wildlife.