

Rural crime crackdown in the North East

The Environment Agency and Durham Constabulary have joined forces in a rural crime crackdown in Weardale.

Illegal waste containers successfully repatriated from Sri Lanka

Environment Agency continue clamp down on illegal waste exporters as 21 containers are repatriated from Sri Lanka.

Sewage signals early warning of coronavirus outbreaks

Government-led programme is providing an early warning of coronavirus outbreaks by monitoring sewage and sharing data with NHS Test & Trace

Environment Agency targets Merton waste sites

Multi-agency visits prompted by rise in theft of cabling catalytic converters.

Environment Agency targets Dover waste sites

Multi-agency visits prompted by rise in theft of cabling catalytic converters.