

Environment Agency targets Croydon waste sites

Multi-agency visits prompted by rise in theft of cabling catalytic converters.

Environment Agency targets Canterbury waste sites

Multi-agency visits prompted by rise in theft of cabling catalytic converters.

Kong pays out for green projects after breaking packaging rules

Dog toy company Kong has paid £4,930 towards environmental projects after it admitted failing to recycle sufficient packaging waste at its Salisbury premises.

Illegal fishing net recovered in North East

The Environment Agency has seized an illegal fishing net at Skinningrove in Redcar and Cleveland.

Fish bred at Environment Agency's fish farm used for rehabilitation of armed forces

Fish bred at the national coarse fish farm in Calverton, Nottinghamshire have been used to stock the fishing lake at the Stanford Hall Rehabilitation Estate.