

Man apprehended in North East illegal fishing investigation

The Environment Agency has apprehended a man in Sunderland and seized an illegal net following a report of illegal fishing.

Work begins on £3.7million flood scheme in Stokesley, North Yorks

Construction of the multi-million pound flood scheme in Stokesley has started with preparation work to help manage the 'river flow' of the River Leven.

New coastal emergency 999 stickers could prove a real lifesaver

A new campaign aimed at keeping people safe from flooding at the coast has been launched.

Boston Barrier wins at 2020 Institution of Civil Engineers Awards

The Environment Agency's £100million Boston Barrier scheme has won an internationally renowned award recognising sustainability in civil engineering.

Local people invited to shape Severn Valley water management plan

Environment Agency and Shropshire Council to engage with communities about proposals that seek to help people be prepared and resilient to impacts of climate change.