

Help protect communities across Yorkshire from flooding

The Environment Agency is looking for three new independent members to join a committee that plays a vital part in shaping local flood and coastal management plans across Yorkshire.

50 first dates for Salisbury's most eligible water voles

A colony of water voles moved from Salisbury to Ringwood has just had a population boom with 50 new males and females moving in to make the population viable.

Almost £5million investment brings boost to Yorkshire environment

More than 82 hectares of habitat has been created or improved in the past year as part of the Environment Agency's programme of improvements across Yorkshire.

Multi-million pound investment brings environmental improvements

The Environment Agency has worked together with partners to invest almost £3m in environmental improvements in the North East over the past year.

All of England's South West region now in drought

Bristol, Somerset, Dorset, south Gloucestershire and parts of Wiltshire have now moved to drought status.