

Polluter to put river right after serious spill

The Environment Agency has outlined measures a polluter must take to restore a river after an incident that killed over 100,000 fish.

Illegal waste activities targeted in Essex

Environment Agency staff joined forces with partners to enter onto a suspected illegal waste site in Essex.

New blueprint to protect and prepare nation from flooding

Plan to better protect and prepare millions of homes and businesses from flooding and the climate emergency has been launched by the Environment Agency

National Drought Group – July 2020 statement

The National Drought Group met on Monday 13 July 2020, chaired by EA executive director for environment and business, Harvey Bradshaw.

Lincoln's sluice gates refurbished in flood defence revamp

Work is under way to refurbish one of Lincoln's most important structures as part of a £6m investment in the city's flood defences.