

Sheffield's River Sheaf screen gets £3m upgrade

A trash screen used to collect debris and reduce the risk of flooding to Sheffield city centre is getting a major upgrade by the Environment Agency.

Regulating the waste industry during the coronavirus pandemic

The Environment Agency is continuing to protect people and the environment during coronavirus (COVID-19).

Another leap forward in returning salmon to Yorkshire Dales

Seeing salmon leaping in the Yorkshire Dales is a step closer thanks to a major river restoration project tackling its next hurdle.

Annual project to reduce coastal flood risk in Lincolnshire starts in June

Workers will follow the government's coronavirus guidance while undertaking the project, which reduces the risk of flooding to homes and businesses.

£11m Caton Road, Lancaster Flood Risk Mitigation Scheme continues in line with Covid-19 guidelines

Work is continuing on the multi-million flood risk management scheme in Lancaster.