

Waste crime crackdown in Borehamwood

Lorries and vans checked for correct documents.

---

Exeter fish pass extended 7m after weir washes away

Salmon and trout can now ascend Trews Weir in Exeter after the water level of the River Exe dropped several metres.

---

New stronghold for endangered crayfish in Lincolnshire

Environment Agency teams are relocating hundreds of native crayfish to help boost their numbers.

---

Fish pass at iconic Grade II Crumpwood weir now in action

Atlantic salmon and brown trout can now populate a further seven kilometres of the River Churnet.

---

Push to better understand sources

affecting bathing water quality

An extensive programme of testing is being carried out around Bridlington in a bid to find out sources impacting on bathing water quality.