

Building Calstock's resilience to climate change

The Environment Agency has created a new intertidal habitat at Calstock on the River Tamar in Cornwall.

Wild trout stocks set for further boost as Environment Agency and Wild Trout Trust partnership is renewed

Environment Agency extends long-standing partnership with the Wild Trout Trust to help improve river habitat for fish and wildlife

Norfolk man jailed for 8 months over illegal waste

Trevor Sieley continued to store and burn waste despite repeated warnings from Environment Agency.

'Drop-in' on Pevensey Bay to Eastbourne Coastal Management plans

The Environment Agency and Eastbourne Borough Council are urging residents and organisations to attend one of a series of drop-ins and webinars.

County Durham man fined for illegal fish killing

The Environment Agency is urging anglers and rivers users to remain vigilant to suspicious activity after a man is fined for killing fish with banned equipment.