

County Durham man fined for illegal fish killing

The Environment Agency is urging anglers and rivers users to remain vigilant to suspicious activity after a man is fined for killing fish with banned equipment.

Crackdown on waste crime: Time to stop trashing our future

Environment Agency Chief Executive Sir James Bevan's speech on waste crime at a Let's Recycle and Environmental Services Association event on Tuesday 12 April.

New bathing water status in the Isle of Wight and Oxford

Part of the Wolvercote Mill Stream at Port Meadow, Oxford, and the East Cowes Esplanade on the Isle of Wight will be added to the list of bathing waters.

Over 314,000 homes better protected due to flood protection work

A £2.6 billion, six-year programme of work dedicated to improving flood and coastal defences has exceeded its original targets by 14,000 homes.

Nottingham angler caught more than he bargained for

Nottingham man caught removing Chub from River Trent.