

Largest overhaul of sewer system to tackle storm sewage discharges

Consultation on the Storm Overflows Discharge Reduction Plan outlines a step change in how water companies tackle the number of discharges of untreated sewage.

Environment Agency to carry out vital flood prevention work in Matlock

The Environment Agency will carry out essential flood prevention work in Matlock, Derbyshire next week to reduce the flood risk to over 50 homes and businesses.

Eustice: supporting farmers ahead of the coming growing season

The Government has announced steps to assist farmers with the availability of fertilisers to address uncertainty amongst growers and keep costs down for farmers

Refurbished pumping station makes Doncaster more resilient to climate change

A newly refurbished pumping station at Bentley, Doncaster, which provides greater protection to 1,699 homes and businesses, has been officially opened.

Home improvements to better protect Allesley homes from flooding

The Environment Agency has started work to install property flood resilience measures to more than 30 homes in Allesley, Coventry.