

Applications for Permit Variations at Horse Hill oilfield

Second round of public consultation is now open.

Hull's new flood defences officially opened

Hull's new Humber frontage flood defences which provide greater protection to 113,000 homes and businesses, as well as local infrastructure and other public amenities are being officially opened.

Leicestershire man made to pay for illegal fishing on River Trent

Angler found guilty of breaching Nottinghamshire fishing byelaws.

Suspended prison sentences for brothers who illegally stored waste at Shropshire site

The Environment Agency has successfully prosecuted two men who stored more than 26,000 cubic metres of waste illegally at a site on land next to the M54 motorway.

Water is the most important thing there is

Remarks by Sir James Bevan, Chief Executive of the Environment Agency, to the All Party Parliamentary Group on Water, 3 March 2022