

Environment Agency and Angling Trust deliver training to help reduce Fisheries Crime in Cumbria

The Environment Agency held a training day for the Cumbria Police Rural Task Force to help reduce fisheries offences in Cumbria

Water companies could face legal action after investigation launched into sewage treatment works

Major investigation announced by the Environment Agency and Ofwat into sewage treatment works

Fish refuges created to protect vital fish populations across the East Midlands

Vulnerable fish populations given shelter from extreme weather, including flooding.

River Skerne work starts to reduce flood risk

Essential maintenance to reduce the risk of flooding from the River Skerne through Darlington town centre in the North East has started this week.

Amphibious vehicle helping to tackle flooding in Essex

The Environment Agency has been trialling a new piece of equipment in Essex to help reduce flood risk to homes and businesses.