

Environment Agency encourages Sikh community to reduce plastic waste

Sikh festivals are at the heart of a diversity project encouraging sustainable behaviour changes during faith-based celebrations.

---

Thames Barrier closed for 200th time

Barrier being closed to protect London from a high tide as a result of low pressure and northerly winds coinciding with spring tides

---

New report: regulation helping protect against climate change

High rate of regulatory performance in England is helping fight climate change impacts, but more must be done to secure a healthy environment, says EA report

---

New thermal kit to improve fisheries enforcement in Devon and Cornwall

The Environment Agency has purchased a thermal imaging camera for use in fisheries enforcement patrols across Devon and Cornwall.

---

Lack of water presents 'existential' threat, says Environment Agency Chief

Sir James Bevan sets out hopes of keeping the 1.5°C target alive at COP26, but warns whatever is agreed the damage from climate change will be felt for decades