

Appeal for local knowledge to achieve tree planting ambitions in York

The Environment Agency is appealing for help from York residents to decide where new trees should be planted as part of the city's flood defence scheme.

Canvey Island southern shoreline revetment project

Environment Agency to renew flood defence revetment with improvements to the seafront and shoreline.

Illegal fishing clampdown in Lincolnshire

16 anglers were served notices for fishing offences in Lincolnshire during a multi-agency clampdown on illegal fishing.

Vehicles seized at road stops in Dartford and Gravesham

Multi-agency operation sees 36 vehicles stopped and waste collectors' paperwork checked.

Lincolnshire electrical appliances recycling company prosecuted

A Lincolnshire waste business has been fined for putting the local community and the environment at risk.