

Company director fined £1,272 for abandoning Shropshire waste site

The Environment Agency has prosecuted a director of a waste company in Shropshire who abandoned a site full of waste without notifying the regulating authority.

Policy paper: Sustainable Farming Incentive: how the scheme will work in 2022

How the Sustainable Farming Incentive scheme will work in 2022.

Policy paper: Sustainable Farming Incentive: how the scheme will work in 2022

How the Sustainable Farming Incentive scheme will work in 2022.

News story: Eustice: Food and farming industry crucial to Government's levelling-up agenda

Environment Secretary delivers speech at the CLA conference as further details of the Sustainable Farming Incentive published

Managing the climate crisis and pensions

Emma Howard Boyd, Chair of the Environment Agency speaking at the Investment & Pensions Europe Conference & Awards, 2 December 2021