

Guidance: Establish trees along field boundaries

Find out how land managers can establish trees along field boundaries and how this can benefit the environment.

Guidance: Complete a woodland condition assessment

Find out how land managers can assess how good their woodland is for wildlife.

Guidance: Create and manage open space in woodland

Find out how land managers can create and manage open spaces to provide wildlife habitats and protect historic features.

Guidance: Maintain dead wood to benefit wildlife

Find out how land managers can maintain a variety of dead wood to support wildlife and help to recycle nutrients into the soil.

Guidance: Use precision pesticide application systems

Find out how land managers can improve water quality and protect wildlife habitats by applying pesticides more accurately.