

Guidance: Create and maintain flower-rich margins and plots

Find out how land managers can sow wildflowers to provide food, shelter and nesting places for invertebrates and birds, and protect water bodies

Guidance: Create scrub and scrub mosaics

Find out how land managers can create scrub and scrub mosaics to provide food and shelter for wildlife.

Guidance: Block drains in grassland

Find out how land managers can create natural flows of water through grassland to improve flood resilience and enhance wetland habitats.

Guidance: Manage rushes in grassland

Find out how land managers can maintain grassland habitat condition and support ground nesting wading birds.

Guidance: Reduce grassland management intensity next to watercourses

Find out how land managers can improve water quality and soil structure by changing the management of grasslands next to watercourses.