

Press release: Eustice sets out approach for future agriculture policy

Speaking at the NFU conference 2021, Environment Secretary George Eustice, sets out the UK Government's approach for future agriculture policy now that the UK has left the EU.

Transparency data: Defra: spending over £500, November 2020

Spending by electronic purchasing card solution (ePCS), over £500.

Speech: Environment Secretary, George Eustice, speech at NFU Conference 2021

Environment Secretary, George Eustice, delivers a speech at the NFU Conference 2021 in which he further sets out his approach for future agriculture policy.

News story: Consultation launches on interim licences for releasing gamebirds

Defra launches three-week consultation to determine details of the new interim licensing regime ahead of 2021 release of gamebirds on and around protected sites.

Open consultation: Gamebird release interim licence

Seeking views on the proposed interim general licence for the release of pheasants and red-legged partridges on European Protected Sites in England.