

News story: Dame Glenys Stacey selected as preferred Chair for Office for Environmental Protection

Following a rigorous process conducted in accordance with the Ministerial Governance Code on Public Appointments, Dame Glenys has been selected as the preferred candidate to Chair the new independent body.

Campus concept for Aberdeen

SRUC is sharing an early concept masterplan for the expansion of its Craibstone Campus in Aberdeen and is seeking community views on the proposals.

Statutory guidance: Wild birds: licence to kill or take for public health or safety (GL35 and GL41)

As a land owner, occupier or authorised person, use this general licence to kill or take certain wild birds to preserve public health or safety.

Statutory guidance: Wild birds: licence to kill or take to prevent serious damage (GL36 and GL42)

As a land owner, occupier or authorised person, use this general licence to kill or take certain wild birds to prevent serious damage.

Statutory guidance: Wild birds: licence to kill or take for conservation purposes (GL34 and GL40)

As a land owner, occupier or authorised person, use this general licence to kill or take certain wild birds to conserve wild birds and to conserve flora and fauna.