

SAC Consulting teams raise over £7k with charity challenge

Teams from SAC Consulting have walked, cycled or run nearly 10,000 miles to raise more than £7000 for charity.

Food safety vital to protect Scottish brands

Maintaining high levels of safety is essential when it comes to protecting Scotland's world-famous brands of food and drink.

SRUC courses well placed to meet climate challenge

New SRUC degree courses that explore everything from land management change to electric tractors will help to respond to the climate challenge.

Policy paper: Global Resource Initiative taskforce: government response

Government response to the recommendations of the Global Resource Initiative taskforce on how to reduce the climate and environment effects of key UK supply chains.

Consultation outcome: Forests: reducing deforestation in UK supply chains

Seeking views on a new law to prevent illegal deforestation.