

Environment Agency working day and night to reduce flood impact

Environment Agency is working to reduce impact of flooding across parts of northern England following heavy persistent rain.

Paws for applause

Scotland's Rural College officially opened the doors to new £350,000 Animal Care and Gamekeeping facilities at its Elmwood campus today (8 November 2019).

Guidance: Plant imports: 'additional declarations' for phytosanitary certificates

Additional declarations that you must make on phytosanitary certificates as a plant health authority in a country sending plants to the UK.

D2N2 STEM Skills (OC08S19P1656)

This call seeks proposals to promote and increase STEM skills in the D2N2 LEP area. In particular, those tailored towards encouraging female, and other under-represented groups, to participate in STEM subjects.

Climate change research wins PhD student prize

A postgraduate student at Scotland's Rural College has won a prize for her research looking at the effects of climate change on European grassland yields.