

Press release: Cornish tea producer proves strength of British brew overseas

Cornish tea company Tregothnan has secured new orders totalling £145,000 thanks to a government networking event at Number 10, bolstering its export pipeline.

Heavy horse helps deliver natural flood management scheme

A new natural flood management scheme at an Essex country park is being delivered with the help of a 4-legged friend, Roy, a Suffolk Punch.

River Stour becomes more fish friendly

Migratory fish including sea trout could soon reach previously inaccessible stretches of the River Stour in Dorset.

Innovative ecological scheme to reduce flooding in Leicestershire

Natural Flood Management measures introduced to slow and store water at Narborough Bogs Nature Reserve in Leicestershire.

Transparency data: Defra: prompt payment data April 2015 to September 2019

How long Defra takes to pay invoices.