

Walk on the wild side

Students are set to take a walk on the wild side following a collaboration between Scotland's Rural College and the Royal Zoological Society of Scotland (RZSS).

---

Research with impact

Nearly 50 postgraduate students presented their work at a two-day conference showcasing research at Scotland's Rural College.

---

Summary of the Bryan Lovell Meeting 2019: the role of geoscience in decarbonisation

This briefing note summarises the main themes of the meeting and the ways in which geoscience and the subsurface can deliver opportunities for decarbonisation.

---

Golfer par excellence

Golf student Lorna McClymont is celebrating after the biggest win of her career at the R&A Foundation Scholars Tournament in St Andrews.

---

Press release: Environment Agency

flood scheme for Starcross and Cockwood officially opened

Today (5 April 2019) has seen the official opening of Starcross and Cockwood's £4.8 million flood defence scheme.