

Student success at Lantra awards

Students from Scotland's Rural College swept the board in four categories at Lantra Scotland's Land-based and Aquaculture Learner of the Year awards.

Study shows decline in rural gender pay gap

Researchers in SRUC's Rural Policy Centre have completed a scoping study on the gender pay gap in rural Scotland.

News story: New Fisheries Minister celebrates International Year of Salmon

A project to help the revival of salmon on one of England's key rivers has been officially opened by Fisheries Minister Robert Goodwill today.

Press release: 3km oil slick threatened local beauty spot.

A serious pollution incident led to a 3km oil slick near the Potteric Carr Nature Reserve, Doncaster.

Speech: Back to the Future

Emma Howard Boyd, Chair of the Environment Agency speech to Futurebuild 2019