

Press release: Thousands of fish released into North East rivers

The Environment Agency has released thousands of fish to give stocks a boost and encourage people to go fishing.

Classroom of the future

A new state-of-the-art digital classroom has been unveiled at Scotland's Rural College Barony campus in Dumfries. It is believed to be the first of its kind in the region.

New PhD projects to tackle rural issues

Farmers are set to benefit from 18 new PhD research projects being funded by Scotland's Rural College to address a wide range of issues within the rural sector.

Agricultural advisor 'breaks his duck'

Agricultural advisor and Honorary Fellow David Barnes visited Scotland's Rural College to talk to students about the Scottish Government's future farm support policy.

Researchers tackle nitrogen pollution in Asia

Climate change researchers from Scotland's Rural College are to help tackle nitrogen pollution in South Asia as part of a £20 million project.