

Press release: North East man fined for waste offences

A North East man has been fined after pleading guilty to four offences, including breaching an environmental permit and obstruction.

The role for CO2 Capture and Storage in meeting global climate targets

Representatives from CO2GeoNet, the European Energy Research Alliance CCS Joint Programme, the Global CCS Institute, the UK Carbon Capture and Storage Association and the European Zero Emission Technology and Innovation Platform are working to raise awareness of the important role of CCS as a key emission reduction option.

Exploring the potential for geothermal energy

Geothermal energy in Cornwall

Press release: Fishing trip cost Leicester man over £1,400 – a licence costs £30

Matt Ralton, of St Stephens Road, Leicester was proved guilty of fishing without a licence failing to state name and address and obstructing a constable

Press release: Call for committee members to help shape future flood plans

The Environment Agency is recruiting members for flood committees in the Severn and Wye and the Trent catchments.