

Dynamic backdrop for Land Use event

A visitor attraction that celebrates the changing face of the planet was an appropriate venue for Scotland's Biennial Land Use and Environment Conference.

---

Press release: Pair caught fishing illegally land over £1200 in fines and costs

A fishing trip cost two Wolverhampton men more than £600 each, after they were caught without a licence and illegally removing fish.

---

£1.5 million geospatial competition open to improve public services

The Geospatial Commission has partnered with Innovate UK to launch a new government competition where organisations can apply for a share of £1.5 million to fund projects which use data linked to location.

---

Press release: Fish moved to make way for flood scheme construction

The next stage of the Environment Agency's £32m project in Perry Barr and Witton, reducing flood risk for 1,400 properties, started with a fish rescue.

---

Press release: Most detailed picture yet of changing climate launched

New data gives the most detailed picture yet of temperature, rainfall and sea level rise over next century