

Press release: Environment Agency flood scheme for Starcross and Cockwood officially opened

Today (5 April 2019) has seen the official opening of Starcross and Cockwood's £4.8 million flood defence scheme.

Field to fork

Gamekeeping and hospitality students are set to play a starring role in the latest series of BBC Scotland's rural affairs programme "Landward".

Press release: The Great Farm Challenge – Educating the next generation of farmers

Natural England in partnership with the Environment Agency, Defra and local water companies unveils this year's champion young farmers

Press release: Sewage pollution leads to £200,000 restorative charity donation

Yorkshire Water offered a charity donation to resolve an investigation into a sewage pollution event at the Pissy Beds Drain near Hatfield Colliery

New EU-funded research to focus on best practice for subsurface projects

A three-year international project (SECURE – Subsurface Evaluation of CCS and Unconventional Risks) focusing on best practice for developers engaged in subsurface energy projects is under way with dedicated funding from the European Union.