

Speech: Steady investments in a changing climate

Emma Howard Boyd, Chair of the Environment Agency speech at the European Bank for Reconstruction and Development

Protecting Animal Health

A new £1.6 million centre for animal disease surveillance and research means faster, more reliable and more efficient diagnoses of livestock animal diseases for the whole of Scotland.

Deputy First Minister highlights key role of SRUC

The importance of Scotland's Rural College to the current and future needs of the country's economy has been highlighted at a parliamentary reception.

Press release: Beavers arrive in Essex to play their part in flood prevention

After an absence of 400 years, the Eurasian beaver is back in Essex, with a pair now released into an enclosure on a historic country estate.

Press release: Colyton event to commemorate one of the worst natural disasters to hit East Devon

In 1968 a summer storm flooded homes and businesses across Devon and Somerset, thousands were driven from their homes and tragically a number of lives were lost.