

SRUC course receives top animal welfare award

A leading SRUC course in animal welfare education has been recognised for its contribution in driving innovation in animal welfare for more than quarter of a century.

---

SRUC researchers work on new £8.6m greenhouse gas programme

SRUC researchers are co-investigators on a new £8.6 m research programme to investigate ways to remove greenhouse gases from the atmosphere to counteract global warming.

---

Director appointed to lead Centre for Tropical Livestock Genetics and Health

Professor Appolinaire Djikeng has been appointed to head the Centre for Tropical Livestock Genetics and Health (CTGH).

---

Precision farming conference shaping up to be the best yet

Edinburgh is hosting the 11th ECPA (European Conference on Precision Agriculture) this summer – 20 years since it was first held in the UK.

---

Precision farming conference shaping up to be best yet

Edinburgh is hosting the 11th ECPA (European Conference on Precision Agriculture) this summer – 20 years since it was first held in the UK.