

Richard Dewhurst elected as BSAS President

Professor Richard Dewhurst, Head of Future Farming Systems at SRUC, has been elected as the new President of the British Society of Animal Science.

Richard Dewhurst elected BSAS President

Professor Richard Dewhurst, Head of Future Farming Systems at SRUC, has been elected as the new President of the British Society of Animal Science.

Aberdeen student wins Bronze at Farmers Club Pinnacle Awards

Aberdeen student Robbie Stevenson has won Bronze at the prestigious Farmers Club Pinnacle Awards for Excellence in Business Management.

Successful MSc field study trip in Atlas Mountains

Students from the MSc courses in Environmental Protection and Management, and Soils and Sustainability recently completed a successful field study tour in the Atlas Mountains in Morocco.

Edinburgh student wins prestigious horticulture scholarship

Edinburgh horticulture student Caitlin Robinson has been awarded a Student Scholarship of £1,000 by the prestigious David Colegrave Foundation (DCF).